

Name: _____

Balazs

Directions: Read section 6.2a from 135-137 and do the following questions:

Due Wednesday 10/6

1. What was the difference between the two periods of the Roman Republic?

2. What did the term SPQR stand for and why was it important?

3.
 - a. What rights did the Plebeians gain between 494 and 287 BCE as a result of their protests against fighting in the army?

 - b. In Roman times all citizens were required to fight in the army, should all American citizens be required to serve in the Army? Explain your answer.

4.
 - a. What were the twelve tables?

 - b. How does a society benefit by having laws written down as opposed to just applying them from how things have been done in the past?

5. Describe the following:

- a. The consul(s)
- b. Veto
- c. The senate
- d. Power of the people
- e. Dictator
- f. Cincinnatus

6. Look up the word “pyrite”, what might it have in common with a “pyrrhic victory”?

7.

- a. How did the Romans treat the areas they conquered?
- b. How did they treat their allies?
- c. Explain why you think their decision on how they treated them was good or bad?