

K-12 Social Studies Update

Cory Gillette, K-5 Program Director of Social Studies
Keith Keeler, 6-12 Department Chair Social Studies

Agenda

PART 1

K-12 Social Studies Program Overview

PART 2

Updates

PART 3

Continuing to Study

Inquiry Arc

D1: Develop Questions & Plan Inquiries

D2: Apply Disciplinary tools & Concepts

D3: Evaluate Sources & Use Evidence

D4: Communicate Conclusions & Take Action

K-5 Scope and Sequence

Compelling Questions

6-8 Scope and Sequence

→ Compelling Questions

9-12 Scope and Sequence

Compelling Questions

Grade 11

Grade 12

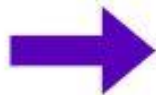

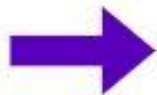

Grade 9

Grade 10

Compelling Question Progression K-12

How does where you live affect how you live?

Content Progression K-12

The Story of the American Revolution

Curriculum Updates

K-5

Elementary Aligned Units completed Summer 19

Learning Progressions created for Geography

Elementary Curriculum Leaders in social studies lead the curriculum work in PD, planning for social studies PLCs at each school and in the creation and revision of units

K-12 Websites for Parents

6-12

Scope and Sequence Documents for Core Classes

Skill Progressions (Historical Thinking Skills)

Development of Units Grades 6-8, 9-12

Continued partnership with Teacher's College, Columbia University

Continuing to Study

K-5

Inquiry Institute to align with Science

Continued revision of geography lessons and units

Professional Development in Best Practices

Expansion of K-8 Visitation and Collaboration

6-12

Effectiveness of our adoption of inquiry practices

Differentiation in classroom practice

Alignment

Scope and Sequence

Expansion of 6-12 Visitation

Questions

